Sunday Worship Services

Joint Summer Service- Sun. Aug 3, 2014 Littleton, Harvard, and Stow/Acton UU Churches

On Sunday, August 3th at 10:00 AM, the Harvard UU Church will host the Joint Summer Service of the three UU churches. The service will be in the sanctuary of the Harvard church and is modeled after a Sunday morning, minister-led service.

Aaron Stockwell, will lead the worship service. Sermon will be "Radical Hospitality." He is a UU ministerial candidate, who served as sabbatical minister at the Harvard church from December 2013-April 2014 and is the incoming Interim Director of Lifespan Religious Education at the First Parish in Lexington.

Ted Johnson, Harvard's music director, will lead the "pick-up" choir. Rehearsal begins at 8:30AM, and all singers are welcome. The choir will sing a choral introit and anthem.

Children are welcome. However, baby-sitting is not offered, and there are no Religious Education programs during the summer.

Refreshments will be offered after the service. Donations of finger-food desserts would be appreciated.

Looking forward to seeing you in August. Contact Elinor at egentilman@comcast.net

Soulful Sundown Service August 17th at 7 pm in the Vestry Theme: Sounds and Silence

As summer draws to a close Debbie Eston and Prisl Dumka will lead us in a time focused on noticing Sounds and experiencing Silence. Congregants will be exposed to an eclectic array of Sounds followed by a time of Silence to provide personal insight into what thoughts and emotions are invoked by both. Light refreshments will be served following the service.

Summer afternoon; to me those have always been the two most beautiful words in the English language.

Church Business

Standing Committee

Your Standing Committee has been at work preparing for the coming Church year. We have determined that Joel will chair this year with Deb filling the roles of vice-chair and liaison to both the Finance and Stewardship committees. Bob has agreed to liaison with the Building committee.

Melissa will serve as liaison to the search team for a new Director of Spiritual Development and the Spiritual Development committee. Betsy is going to connect us with the church administrator and serve as the Managerial Contact for that position. Mike will represent the Standing Committee as we move forward with others in developing strategic planning for FCU. We are looking forward to this coming year and enjoying the opportunity to work together for our Church.

Three of us attended the General Assembly (GA) of the UUA held in Providence in June. We were joined by 12 other FCU folks and Rev. Marta at this exciting gathering. Many more of our congregants came for the Sunday worship service. I know you'll be hearing more about GA soon.

The search process for a new Director of Spiritual Development is underway. If you would like to learn more about the process, or feel you have input that would be helpful, please contact the team at DREST@FCUlittle.org.

We hope you are enjoying a refreshing and relaxing summer.

Deacon Notes

Summer Service Updates

On July 20th, we had the pleasure of hearing from Niela Miller, Caroline Marvin and others about "Spirit & Psyche". Niela and Caroline, thank you so much for leading a wonderful and moving Soulful Sundown Service.

Four days later, we gathered again for the Memorial Service for Dr. Henry S. Harvey. His 98 years of experiences leave me breathless. Henry will be missed by all.

Our Joint Summer Service is on August 3rd at the Harvard UU church at 10 A.M. Please come and join our friends from the Harvard and the Acton/Stow UU churches to celebrate "Radical Hospitality" together. Again, the Deacons would like to thank Elinor McCarthy Gentilman for all the work she puts into this service. It's a labor of love that is very much appreciated.

Our August Soulful Sundown Service is on August 17th at 7:00 P.M. This service will be led by Debbie Eston and myself and is called "Sounds and Silence".

General Assembly

I'd like to thank all the folks from FCU who traveled down to Providence, R.I. for GA this year. Some of us went for the whole conference; others only went for the Sunday Service where we heard a moving sermon from Rev. Mark Stringer on "Be Ours A Religion". Please take a few minutes and check out the UUA website and either watch or read his inspiring words. He described UU's as the people who show up. The link is <https://www.uua.org/ga/virtual/2014/worship/295428.shtml>.

After the service Larry and Lynda Kaylor, Debbie Eston and I shared a meal together at one of the local restaurants. At the end of the meal we each read our fortunes to each other and I just had to share them. "Take the advice of a faithful friend." "Many successes will accompany you this year." "Luck happens when hard work meets opportunity." "You will get what your heart desires."

Peace,
Prisl Dumka, for the Deacons

Lay Pastoral Ministers:

Lessons From Geese

Fact 1: As each goose flap its wings it creates an "uplift" for the birds that follow. By flying in a "V" formation, the whole flock adds 71% greater range than if each bird flew alone.

Lesson: People who share a common sense of direction and community can get where they are going quicker and easier because they are traveling on the thrust of one another.

Fact 2: When a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of flying alone. It quickly moves back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front of it.

Lesson: If we have as much sense as a goose we stay in formation with those headed where we want to go. We are willing to accept their help and give our help to others.

Fact 3: When the lead goose tires, it rotates back into the formation and another goose flies to the point position.

Lesson: It pays to take turns doing the hard tasks and sharing leadership, as with geese, people are interdependent on each other's skill, capabilities and unique arrangement of gifts, talents or resources.

Fact 4: The geese flying in formation honk to encourage those up front to keep up their speed.

Lesson: We need to make sure our honking is encouraging. In groups where there is encouragement, the productivity is much greater. The power of encouragement (to stand by one's heart or core values and encourage the heart and core of others) is the quality of honking we seek.

Fact 5: When a goose gets sick, wounded or shot down, two geese drop out of formation and follow it down to help and protect it. They stay until it dies or can fly again. Then they launch out with another formation or catch up with the flock.

Lesson: If we have as much sense as geese, we will stand by each other in difficult times as well as when we are strong.

"Lessons from Geese" was transcribed from a speech given by Angeles Arrien at the 1991 Organizational Development Network and is based on the work of Milton Olson.

FIRST CHURCH UNITARIAN ANNUAL COUNTRY FAIR UPDATE

When:	Saturday Sept 13 th , 10am-4pm
Where:	Fay Park (across the street from FCU)
Why:	A major fundraiser for the FCU budget and a great community day providing good clean fun for all ages
Who:	Friends and Members of FCU run the fair Everyone is invited to attend

The Fair will be here before you know it! I've noticed that the barn is already getting rather full with our offerings for Trash and Treasures, which is great! If you have not yet heard from Fair Chair Monica Pilman or one of the Fair's booth captains about your role in this year's Fair, you soon will. We need as much help as we can get. If there is a specific job you want to do, or a specific suggestion you have to offer, please contact fair@fculittle.org, or see other Fair-related information below.

Secret Bid Auction

Last year we ran a Secret Bid Auction for the first time at our Fair, and it was a big financial success for us. We are hoping to run it again this year, but we need your donations! Suggestions include things like gift certificates to local stores/restaurants/fun places; a weekend or week in a vacation home; baskets of goodies (for example, a basket of made-in-Massachusetts chocolates, or spa products, or a lovely selection of bird feeders and foods...be creative!), or works of art. You may specify a minimum bid for the item. At day's end, we contact the high bidder and arrange for them to pick up their prizes.

What can I do this summer to get ready for the Fair?

Books and DVDs

Weed out your bookcases and bring your gently used books and DVDs to the parsonage barn for the used book table. Books and DVDs can be left at the back corner of the parsonage barn on the ground floor. (Look for signs) Please, no copies of DVDs - your DVD donations need to be in their original jewel cases or boxes! I'm sorry but we will no longer accept VHS tapes, CDs, 8-track tapes, vinyl record albums, or BetaMax.

Trash and Treasure and Kid's Trash and Treasure

Clean out your basements, attics, and garages and bring your trash - someone else's treasure - to the parsonage barn. Items are to be carried to the second floor of the barn. Please make sure that what you bring is in good, reusable shape! If you need help getting items upstairs, contact us. If the item is for use by a child make sure that it is in excellent condition and that it adheres to current safety guidelines for children's playthings.

Jewelry

The jewelry table at the Country Fair could use your jewelry donations for re-sale on fair day. Any silver, gold, semi-precious or (dare I hope) precious stone contributions will be priced and displayed accordingly. Jewelry can be dropped off at the church in the Vestry. The Church is open Tuesday through Thursday 9 am to 1 pm. There will be a new secret bid auction for "real" jewelry this year put on by the ladies of the jewelry booth – so donate those unwanted and unworn bits of preciousness to them ASAP. Let me know if you need a receipt for tax deduction purposes.

Dropping off donations at the parsonage barn

The parsonage barn is located at 27 Foster Street, two houses down from the church. You can enter the barn by the left side door. All Trash and Treasure items are to be taken to the upper level of the barn. Please note the signs of unaccepted items (Thank you). If you need help, send email to barn@fculittle.org with your request. Please be careful not to leave items where they don't belong and be mindful about not disturbing our minister's family when you visit the barn. The barn is open for deliveries after 5 PM until dusk daily, but weekend deliveries are preferred.

Outside Vendor Booths

Do you have a friend who has a business selling locally made original items and wants to have a booth at our Fair? Have them contact us at fair@fculittle.org to obtain a booth!

Non-profit Booths

Local non-profits are also welcome to have a booth at our Fair in order to promote their organizations. They may even run small fundraisers as long as what they have in mind does not conflict with any church-sponsored booths (check with us to make sure!). Contact Martha Childs for details.

What Can I Do to Help with the Fair itself?

Friday setup, September 12th

Friday set up starts at 3:00 PM with setting up the big rental tents. At 6:00 PM we'll switch to other Fair setup tasks and will end with a dinner party at approx. 7:30 PM in the downstairs dining room at FCU. You can arrive at any time and there will be a job for you. See Monica Pilman when you arrive to get your assignment. Or just join a work crew in progress and help out!

Friday night tasks will include setting up tents, slicing food, sorting items from the barn, and moving picnic tables and books. One goal for Friday night is to transport as many books as possible across the street from the parsonage barn to the Vestry. If you have signed up for the book table we would love to have you participate in the book transfer on Friday night because it is an opportunity to semi-sort them for sale.

Saturday morning early setup on Fair Day, September 13th

Set up starts promptly at 7am! We need all the help we can get for this task. We highly recommend that you wear boots for safety and come ready to move lots of trash and treasure items. Coffee and donuts will be waiting for you on the Parsonage porch when you arrive. If you have a trailer that you can bring we would love that also.

Breakdown and cleanup after 4pm on Saturday

Many people arrive as early as 7am and work the fair throughout the entire day making the events flow flawlessly. This can make for a very long day. If you are someone who can't make it to the fair because of family or sports commitments during the day would you consider coming at the end of the fair to help with the clean up and break down? We could really use the fresh and energized legs to help with the breakdown that starts at 4pm promptly. See Monica Pilman for an assignment when you arrive, or join a work crew in progress. It usually takes between 2.5 – 3 hours to clean up after the Fair, then those who still have a few ergs of energy left meet at Kimball Farms for an after-Fair dessert celebration!

ITEMS WE NEED FOR FAIR DAY

Canopies, Tarps, Tables, Ice Chests (coolers)

If you own a canopy or tarp or table we would love to use it. We also need lots of ice chests and large coolers for storing drinks. If you drop your tarp/canopy off at the church we will happily set it up for you. As you know, shade is at a premium and canopies help to make the day much more pleasant for those working the booths. All items can be dropped off at the church at any time on Friday straight thru to Saturday morning. Be sure to label your tarps, canopies, tables, and coolers!

Baked Goods and homegrown tomatoes

We have a Baked Goods table that would welcome your donations of homemade baked goods and fudge. Homegrown tomatoes are greatly appreciated by the lunch table and will taste yummy in our sandwich offerings. Baked goods and tomatoes can be dropped off any time Friday afternoon or evening in the dining room downstairs.

Beverages

Cases of water, juice, or soda are greatly appreciated and can be dropped off on Friday night or first thing Saturday morning.

SEE YOU AT THE FAIR

The Month of August

August has no National Holidays, but it does have quite a few quirky ones.

August 3rd:

International Forgiveness Day-

International Forgiveness Day was created by the World Forgiveness Alliance, a non-denominational, educational foundation. According to their website: "International Forgiveness Day dedicated to evoking the healing power of forgiveness worldwide."

Take a few moments to sincerely forgive someone. And, make it public. That way forgiveness will spread.

August 6th:

Wiggle Your Toes Day

Celebrate Wiggle Your Toes Day by airing out your toes, and wiggling them around for all to see. The best place to wiggle your toes on a hot August day, is in the pool. Or, sit on a dock and stick your wiggly little toes in the water.

August 17th:

National Thriftshop Day

National Thriftshop Day is a day for a real bargain. Reuse, Repair, Recycle. One small way to conserve the environment.

Stuff to Do at FCU

AEC Upcoming Events

AEC is planning a number of events for the coming church year:

- * Encores of our most popular events: Tech Day and Plant Exchange.
- * New this year, an occasional movie night with the theme of "The Icons of the Decade," including 1950s and 60s (maybe more depending how it goes). We expect lively discussions about how things have changed (or not).
- * Hidden Gems of Lowell walking tours dates TBD, watch the Bulletin and the Calendar.

More to be announced as plans materialize, watch this space!

As always, if you have ideas on an event that you would like to see happen, let us know. Even better, join our committee!! Contact AEC@FCUlittle.org

Caring for our Aging Parents

Monday, August 4, 2014

7:00 to 9:00 p.m., in the Alliance Room

Many of us are intimately involved with the emotional toll that it takes to care for an aging parent. This peer support group is a place where you can comfortably talk about the process with others who are going through the same challenges. Whether you are in the midst of dealing with it now or have had an experience in the past and have insights and resources to share, come be part of our group. We meet the first Monday of the month each month. For more information, feel free to contact COAP@fculittle.org or speak with Prisl Dumka.

Parade:

Littleton 300 Parade: Saturday, September 6

Help us wish Littleton—and FCU—a happy 300th birthday in the Littleton Tercentenary Parade on Saturday, September 6.

FCU members will be walking (or rolling! wheelchairs, scooters, etc. are welcome) in the parade, which begins at 10 a.m. at St. Anne Parish, 75 King Street, and is scheduled to end at 1 p.m. at 550 King Street (IBM office building). Details regarding time and place to meet to come.

If you'd like to participate, please send an email to melissa.baern@baernworks.com and put Sept. 6 on your calendar!

The Standing Committee has received some questions about our plan to carry our FCU banner, a Standing on the Side of Love banner, and a rainbow flag, and to wear Standing on the Side of Love t-shirts. We invite FCU members to share their ideas about what we might carry, wear, etc. while walking that would represent FCU and its 300 years of history in Littleton. Please share any thoughts you might have with the Executive Team before August 6 by emailing any one of us or et@fculittle.org. Stay tuned for more information via email and list-serve.

What is Standing on the Side of Love, anyway?

We talk about it, but what exactly is it? In short, Standing on the Side of Love is a UUA-sponsored campaign for social justice in all realms.

Here's what the organization says about itself: "Standing on the Side of Love is an interfaith public advocacy campaign that seeks to harness love's power to stop oppression."

Standing on the Side of Love strives to bring compassionate religious voices together so that they can influence public attitudes and public policy through community activism, social networking, and media outreach.

It's sponsored by the UUA, but it's not exclusive to UUs (that's the interfaith part). The campaign was formed in response to the 2008 shooting in Tennessee that targeted a UU church for its advocacy on behalf of LGBTQ people, but it's not just about LGBTQ rights—it combats "exclusion, oppression, and violence based on sexual orientation, gender identity, immigration status, race, religion, or any other identity." Right now, immigrant justice is a major focus of its activity; its other two concentrations are on LGBTQ justice, and a campaign to "Promote Respect and Inclusion" in public discourse.

At its core, the message of Standing on the Side of Love is exactly what its name implies—wherever love is, there we are; wherever hate is, we will meet it with love.

You can read more about Standing on the Side of Love at www.standingonthesideoflove.org.

Offer a Hand Up...

Potential volunteers are invited to visit a prison Toastmasters program to consider becoming a regular mentor. "You will know from one visit if prison volunteering is for you," said Cynthia Heiland, an FCU member and coordinator of a Toastmasters program in Gardner that meets every Wednesday night.

Volunteers must: be willing to serve at least twice a month; pass a criminal background check; and enjoy teaching, speaking and mentoring. Training is provided by the Department of Corrections and by participating in the Toastmasters programs in prison. Prior experience as a Toastmaster is not required. Long term volunteers are needed at the Shirley complex on Monday and Thursday nights.

Potential volunteers may observe the program at Gardner or Shirley. They may give a guest talk of 5-7 minutes, on a topic to prepare the incarcerated people for release, such as interviewing, anger management, how to find a job, starting a business, home budgeting, what makes a good employee, parenting and healthy living.

For more information, visit d31toastmastersprison.wikispaces.com or speak to FCU member Cynthia Heiland, cgheiland@me.com, [508 331-3307] or Susan Tordella, susan.tordella@gmail.com, 978-772 3930.

Sanctuary Quilt Show

Quilt Show Update:

We are continuing to work on plans for the quilt show. If you have a family quilt or one that you have made or been given for a special occasion, please consider letting us borrow it for the 2 day show and share its story. We promise to take good care of it. Quilts will be displayed in the sanctuary where we will carefully fold them over the pews. "White glove ladies" will be available to unfold quilts if visitors would like to see the entire quilt.

If you would like a form to fill out so we can put your quilt(s) on our display list please email me at jawhite10@verizon.net or call 978-486-3273. The forms will be ready August 1.

Jewelry Booth Last Call

Please bring your baubles over to the Volunteer Room at FCU during Laura's office hours in August so she can show you where to put them. We will be having a Silent Auction for the Good Stuff this year so be sure to tag any gold, silver or precious stone pieces for us. Neila Miller

Jammin' is Happenin'

Fruit and Jars

And fruit in jars! The Jammin' in the Kitchen crew has been hard at work for the last three months and are well on the way to stocking the shelves in the Country Store at The Fair this fall. And you can help! Do you have a surplus of fruit in your garden this summer? Do you have empty jars waiting to be refilled? We would love to help you out! Jars can be dropped off in the vestry. A basket will be waiting for them. Please contact Kris Ersland at kersland1@gmail.com or at 978-486-0574 to make arrangements for fruit. If you don't have your own orchard, we would gladly accept donations from local farm stands, or cases of canning jars, half pint only, please. We would also love your company if you would like to give Jammin' a try. We're in the downstairs kitchen every Tuesday from 7 – 9 pm, through the end of August.

Thank you! Kris Ersland on behalf of Jammin' in the Kitchen

Sacred Circle Dance

SCD returns to FCU's Vestry on Friday Sept. 5 (change of date). For the usual second-Friday dance time the Vestry will be occupied by preparations for the Country Fair so the September circle is a week early.

Dances will include celebrations of late summer and the approaching Equinox as we look toward Autumn. NO experience is needed, as all dances are taught.

Newcomers are especially welcome, including young dancers 12 and older. All you need is your water bottle and a willing spirit. Community Circle (easier dances) from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., with more challenging dances at 6:00. For more info, e-mail Circle@fculittle.org.

Women's Alliance Corner:

Crafts! Crafts! Crafts!

Over the summer we will have periodic crafting days. All are welcome, no crafting experience is necessary. The things we create will be sold at the Fall Country Fair, the Quilt Show and the Holiday Bazaar.

Contact Wendy McDougall at WAM@theworld.com or (978)486-3254 for upcoming dates.

Loaves & Fishes

Hello friends!

Summer is here and at Loaves & Fishes, we are already planning for fall. Our annual Backpack Drive is kicking off, and we hope that you will once again choose to be a part of this important effort.

Thanks to your generous contributions, last year we provided 300 backpacks filled with needed school supplies to each school-aged child served by Loaves & Fishes. This is amazing! Our hope is that we will be able to do that again this year. We truly appreciate any donation - big or small.

Attached is a list of supplies requested for each specific age group. We welcome monetary donations, contributions of filled or empty backpacks and supplies. Empty backpacks are always needed, as we often get donations of miscellaneous supplies. Specific needs for this year are middle school and high school empty backpacks. Donations can be dropped off at Loaves & Fishes during open pantry sessions and Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7-8 pm. We hope to collect all donations no later than August 4th so that we can distribute on August 25th.

This program is not possible without YOU! We thank you for your past participation, and we hope that you will consider helping each child served by Loaves & Fishes for the 2014-2015 school year. This program brings such joy and excitement to children in our communities. Our thanks are truly heartfelt.

If you have any questions please contact CSJ@fculittle.org.

Share-the-Plate

Nominate your local charity!!

You can nominate your favorite local charity as a FCU Share the Plate recipient! Just send the name to STP@FCUlittle.org . On the third Sunday of each month, a local charity receives all undesigned offerings and checks made out to the charity as a contribution from the First Church Unitarian congregation.

On Sunday June 15, FCU contributed to the Friends of the Ruben Hoar Library of Littleton. The Friends support the library by purchasing equipment and books and sponsoring educational programs. Through the library, patrons have access to the collection of more than 2 million items of the Merrimack Valley Library Consortium.

Neighborhood Supper

Neighborhood Supper is on hiatus until the renovations at the Congregational Church are finished, probably early next year.
